Pastors Corner

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time: The Multiplication of Bread Jn 6:1-15

One of the most outstanding miracles of the prophet Elisha was the multiplication of loaves. A man brings food to the prophet and he says: bring this food to the people so they can eat - the exact number was twenty barley loaves. Elisha knows that it would not be enough, but he insists on distributing them to the people; not only will it be sufficient, but there will be some leftovers. Some of his disciples objected saying, that they would not be enough. Elisha knew that God is on his side and insists on distributing them because not only will it be sufficient, but there will be leftovers.

The miracle of multiplication appears in all the Gospels, but scholars agree that it only happened once. The Gospels of Matthews and Mark left the two traditions stand side by side: Mk. 6:30-44 presents Jesus as the Good Shepherd who feeds the people by His words and the miraculously multiplied loaves. Since the multiplication pre-figured the Holy Eucharist as food, one has to received it more often. When we receive the Eucharist often, we grow.

The account of John of the multiplication differs from the Synoptics, which contains more details. The five (5) details of the Miracle of the Multiplication point to five Eucharistic overtones. The same five points in the consecration formula of the Mass Canon. 1.) Jesus took the bread 2.) He looked up into heaven, 3.) He gave thanks or spoke the blessings, 4.) Broke the Bread (missing in John), 5.) He gave it to His disciples. Despite one missing element in John, His account foreshadows more the Holy Eucharist – contained in the long Eucharistic discourse in Jn. 25-71.

Three Lessons we can learn from this Gospel: 1. The people are hungry both for material and spiritual food. The crowds have been following Jesus and His disciples wherever they went because they see in Jesus someone who can nourish their body and soul. 2. The seemingly impossible situation of feeding the crowds moved a little boy to offer his provisions. It takes a small act of faith to bring the miracle of multiplication. As St. Mother Theresa says: Just a drop in the ocean - but the act of faith saved the day. It is better to light one little candle than to curse the darkness of the situation. The boy provided a ray of hope amid helplessness and despair. 3. God multiplies the little that we surrender to Him into abundance when it passes the hands of Jesus. Jesus takes the little we offer, blesses it, and gives it back to the people. God did not allow the people of Israel to die in hunger in the desert. He will continue to feed His people through His Son. Thus, in the Gospel, Jesus satisfies their hunger and nourishes them beyond their needs.

None of us can ever duplicate the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and the fish that feeds five thousand. The Miracles of Jesus are signs that point to a deeper reality of who He is and how much He cares for the people. The people are amazed at the signs and wonders – they focused on the Miracle of the Multiplication while forgetting the more essential activities of Jesus' love and concern for the poor and the hungry. In the same way, faith is not so much about the multiplication of prayers and devotions, but about the imitation of loving care and compassionate heart of Jesus. Is my heart striving to imitate the Sacred Heart of Jesus?

In our parish, we promote the devotion to the Alliance of the Two Hearts, the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. May our devotion to His Sacred Heart lead us to the virtue of humility and sincerely imitate the Heart of God the Father. Spiritual Fathers say: Humility is the cardinal virtue on which all the other virtues are hinged. No one can duplicate the power, wisdom, or intelligence of God, but we can always imitate the way Jesus cares and loves His people with a humble heart.

It is with a heavy heart that we want to notify everyone of the passing of Fr. Mark Harrington. Fr. Mark was the second Pastor appointed to shepherd our combined parish of St. Rose Philippine Duchesne and Good Shepherd Mission Church. He guided our parish from 2007 - 2013. After a long but courageous battle with his illness, Fr. Mark died on Monday July 12th. We here at St. Rose / GSM have lowered our flag to half mast in honor of Fr. Mark.

Father Mark will be missed by many. I remember the first time my family met him. We were standing in line together at the Good Egg. One of his favorite spots. Fr. Mark gave us a warm and welcoming invite to attend Sunday Mass. That was the beginning of our St. Rose journey. Father Mark met with us a few times and got to know the four of us. I was blessed to have his continued guidance through the RCIA program. He was always friendly and kind to all. My boys will forever miss his childhood stories that he often shared during his homilies. We will always remember him as our families first priest that will remain near and dear to our hearts. Father Mark will forever be in our thoughts and prayers.

We ask you to keep Fr. Mark in your thoughts and prayers as well as his Family and friends. Eternal rest grant unto him Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul rest in peace. Amen.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP -

The Steward's Work Is Never Done

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock! When you hear these strong words from the Old Testament, you're probably thinking, thank goodness I don't have any sheep — dodged that bullet. Nobody misled here! No flock scattered on my watch! However, we are all shepherds of a kind, called to tend our own sheep: our families, our parishes, our communities.

But it's exhausting. Don't we all sometimes just want to take a break from being a steward? The excuses are so familiar: we're tired, we've done enough, we've given all we can, what more does the parish (or my spouse, or my kids, or my boss, or my friends, or my community) want? We give ourselves permission to be selfish. So, what if the flock scatters just a little?

Jesus gets that. We can just imagine him weary with exhaustion, can't we? We see him on his boat, attempting to sneak away for a quick break — maybe just a chance to eat a bite of food in peace. He is God, but he was still human, after all. Even the most dedicated shepherds need to sleep. But people couldn't leave him alone. They were hungry for him. They needed what he could offer, and they needed it now.

As tough as it is, that's the example we are tasked with imitating. Everyday Stewardship demands accountability. It demands our showing up even when we are tired. It demands that we look at our lives, our time, our energies, our talents, our hearts, our bank accounts and think: where do I still have more to give?

St. Vincent de Paul at work

The third quarter has been completed for your St. Rose SVdP conference. We conducted over 41 visits, provided 149 food boxes/bags resulting in assistance for over 128 people. Financially, we provided, along with our partner organizations, $27,164.47 to assist our neighbors with a variety of issues including rent, utilities, transportation and medical bills. Church contributions from our parishioners ($13,478.20) helped make this work possible. Thanks to your generosity, SVdP was able to assist other Phoenix-area conferences experiencing greater needs with food and financial support. We continue to receive tax credit donations from our parishioners, many for the first time. We are truly blessed!
