Message From Fr Bing

6th Sunday of the Ordinary Time: We are Born to Love Jn 14:15-21

The Gospel this Sunday fills my mind with many thoughts, generally about my life and how this life should reflect the will of the Creator; by imitating our Lord, Jesus Christ. But I also see the many connections in my life: 1.) To Motherhood (Mother's Day), 2.) The Incarnation of Jesus, 3.) His call to love and unity, 4.) His promise to remain with us through the Holy Spirit, and 5.) His Ascension.

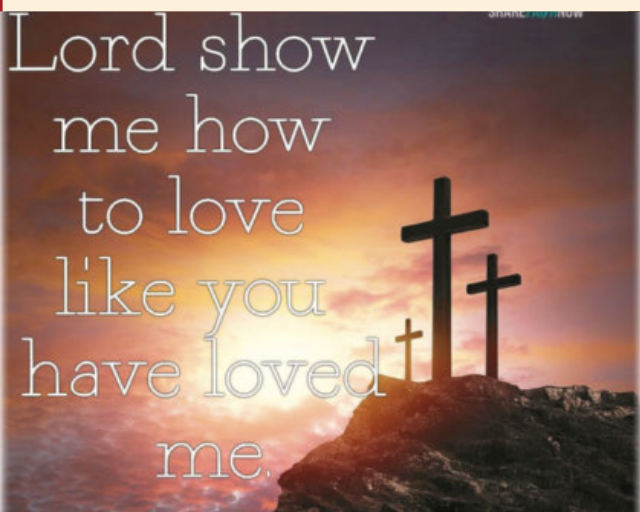

God so loved the world that He gave us His only begotten Son. All life begins in the womb of a woman. When God sent His Son, He sent the Archangel Gabriel to a simple handmaid, announcing that she would conceive the Son of God in her womb. I and all of us began life inside the womb of a woman. For this reason, being a mother is a great honor and blessing. Like God's love, we were all born because our parents loved one another.

The Mystery of the Incarnation stands out as a testimony that love longs for unity with the beloved. The unity of the two natures of Jesus is explained in the hypostatic union of His divinity and humanity; He is both fully God and fully human. Just as in every human person, there is the union of a father and mother. In Jesus, we find two complete and distinct natures as one - just as my parents are one. I am a reflection of my Dad (Jose); and my Mom (Sonia). Every time I look in the mirror, I see the eyes and nose of Sonia; and the rest of my face a reflection of Jose. Soon I will have all-grey hair, a distinct feature of the Colasito clan, a receding hairline, and baldness on the crown, which comes from the mother's side. All these and many other semblances, traits, and characteristics because I am the fruit of the love of Dad and Mom.

Only love can make this unity possible. The love of God brought about the union of divinity and humanity of Jesus together in one perfect oneness. The love of a man and a woman creates another human being who is the unity of a father and mother. And the two shall become one flesh. So, they are no longer two but one flesh (Mt. 10:8).

Unity and oneness are impossible without love. No wonder Jesus keeps bringing this message of love to the hearts of His disciples and all who profess to follow Him through their love for one another. Because only through the eyes of love would we understand the unity of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Trinity), just as it will be through the commandment of love that the Holy Trinity would abide in a disciple's heart.

We are born to live. We are born to love. All of us must strive daily to live to the fullest. St. Irenaeus' famous quote: The glory of God is man fully alive. Jesus calls us to love as He loved. As we celebrate Mother's Day, love the same way Jesus loved the Blessed Mother. But also celebrate the mystery of the Incarnation, the love of God for us. He is the abiding presence of God in us and the Holy Spirit's gift to us and the Church.

PARISH INFORMATION

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM ST. ROSE AND MISSION OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

To be a member of this parish is to enter into a relationship with the other members of the parish who are also on their spiritual journey. We do this together. Clear expectations are at the heart of every healthy relationship.

HERE IS WHAT PARISHIONERS CAN EXPECT FROM ST. ROSE AND MISSION OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

- Dynamic, prayerful, transcendent, and uplifting liturgies
- A place where you will experience transformation to become more and more the person God has created you to be
- A place where you will be valued and recognized as having unique gifts and talents to help others and to make the world a better place
- A place where you will be loved and supported in your spiritual journey regardless of the messiness and struggles of your life
- A place where your spiritual needs will be listened to and addressed
- A place where your input is valued
- A place where your financial contributions will be honored and put to work for the building up of the Kingdom of God with transparency and accountability
